

C Curtis, Thomas B. (1911-1993), Oral Interview, 1978
1427 1 folder

RESTRICTED

This collection is available at The State Historical Society of Missouri. If you would like more information, please contact us at shsresearch@umsystem.edu.

INTRODUCTION

An interview with a former Republican Congressman who served Missouri's Second district from 1951 to 1969 and a member of the House Ways and Means Committee.

DONOR INFORMATION

The Thomas B. Curtis Oral Interview was donated to the University of Missouri by the Association of Former Members of Congress on 24 March 1982 (Accession No. 4417)

RESTRICTIONS

Consult the reference staff about the restrictions on this collection.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

Thomas B. Curtis was born in St. Louis, Missouri, on 14 May 1911. He attended public schools in Webster Groves, Missouri, and graduated from Dartmouth College in 1932. He received his law degree from Washington University in St. Louis in 1935 and practiced law in St. Louis. He served on various public commissions and committees in the St. Louis area before he was elected as a Republican to the 82nd and succeeding eight congresses, from 1951 to 1969. Curtis died on 10 January 1993.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

Thomas B. Curtis' interview was recorded on 9 December 1978 for the Association of Former Members of Congress, Inc. as part of its project The Modern Congress in American History, funded by the National Endowment for the Humanities. A copy of the edited transcript was donated to the regional depository of the interviewee's choice.

INDEX TERMS

Subject	Folders
Curtis, Thomas Bradford (1911-1993)	1
Missouri, Mine La Motte
Missouri, St. Francois County
Oral history	1
U.S. Congress, House	1
U.S. Congress, House, Ways and Means Committee	1