

C Harmony Mission, Reports, 1825-1827
1731 1 folder

This collection is available at The State Historical Society of Missouri. If you would like more information, please contact us at shsresearch@umsystem.edu.

INTRODUCTION

Annual reports to Secretary of War James Barbour from Nathaniel B. Dodge, superintendent, on the Indian School at Harmony Mission, Great Osage Nation. Reports on teachers and other personnel, number of students, amount of Missouri property, expenses, receipts, progress of students, health, and Indian relations.

DONOR INFORMATION

The papers were donated to the State Historical Society of Missouri by W.W. Graves, (Original in National Archives), on 12 Sep 1940 (Accession No. _____).

INDEX TERMS

Subject	Folders
Austin, Daniel H.	1
Barbour, James B. (1775-1842)	1
Bright, Samuel B.	1
Colby, Richard	1
Dodge, Leonard	1
Dodge, Nathaniel B.	1
Dodge, Philena	1
Etnis, Mary	1
Finley, Benton	1
Harmony Mission, Bates County, Missouri	1
Indians, Delaware	1
Indians, Government policy, 1820s	1
Indians, Osage	1
Jones, Amasa (1796-1870)	1
Missouri, Neosho	1
Newton, Samuel	1
Sprague, Otis	1
United Foreign Missionary Society of New York	1
Wooley, Harriet	1