INTRODUCTION

Autograph albums, account books, diaries, and personal and business correspondence of the Viles and Hosmer families. Included are Jonas Viles' professional papers while professor of history at the University of Missouri from 1902 and 1942.

DONOR INFORMATION

Ruth Viles donated the Vile-Hosmer Papers to the University of Missouri on 4 May 1949 and 5 October 1951 (Accession No. 3027). Elmer Ellis donated additional material on 17 December 1971 (Accession No. 3892) and material was transferred from the State Historical Society of Missouri on 4 November 1982 (SHS Accession No. 4469)

FAMILY HISTORY

These papers illuminate four generations of the Viles family of Waltham, Massachusetts, where Jonas and Abigail Viles farmed and sold milk. This family business was passed on to their sons, Jonas and John. In the late 1850s John W. Viles disappears from these records. Jonas and his wife Elizabeth continued the farming and dairy business which they, in turn, passed to their only son Charles Lowell Viles.

In 1871 Charles Lowell married Almira Hubbard. Two children, Jonas and Elizabeth, were born in 1875 and 1882 respectively, before Almira's death in 1883. When Charles married Clara Berry in 1889 they stayed on the family farm in Waltham. Young Jonas was educated at Harvard and in 1902 left Massachusetts to teach history at the University of Missouri. Elizabeth Viles traveled to India as a missionary where she met and married Arthur McBride.

Charles' sister, Elizabeth Viles, married Edward Hosmer, a Boston commission merchant, in 1872. Elizabeth Hosmer moved back to Waltham after Edward's death in 1898, but spent many winters in Pasadena, California, where her husband had invested in real estate. Mrs. Hosmer speculated in numerous mining and real estate ventures until her death in 1926.

Jonas Viles married Ruth Bennet Hayes in 1903 and fathered four sons. He remained in Columbia until his death in 1948. Jonas Viles served as history department chairman from 1928 to 1937, as trustee of the State Historical Society of Missouri from 1904 to 1948, and as first vice-president of the society, 1907-1916. Viles was president of the Mississippi Valley Historical Association, 1933-1934, and also served on the Public Archives Commission of the American Historical Association. SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

These papers detail the business and personal activities of the Viles family of Waltham, Massachusetts. The Viles family papers are primarily business accounts and correspondence. The Elizabeth Viles Hosmer diaries give more personal information to complete the family story. Her papers deal with investments and real estate. Topics include farming, milk marketing, education, social and religious activities, family members, and economic changes.

The Jonas Viles professional papers contain information on the growth of the University of Missouri from 1902 to 1942. Correspondence with professors and presidents relate policy changes, departmental growth, and general education conditions. Little information is contained in the collection for the personal life of Jonas Viles and his family in Columbia.

The collection is divided into five major sections: Viles Family Papers, Elizabeth Viles Hosmer Diaries and Papers, Miscellaneous Family Papers, Viles-Hosmer Genealogical Records, and Jonas Viles Professional Papers. Each section is in chronological order, as are the subsections within the professional papers.

FOLDER LIST

Viles Family Papers and Account Books, 1814-1941. Personal and business papers of the Viles family, who ran a dairy and farmed. Account books and receipts indicate volume of business; amounts, types and prices of produce sold; planting and harvest schedules; and labor expenses. Autograph albums and diaries help personalize these papers, and many of the account books also contain diary entries. Later papers in this section deal with the settlement of estates and often contain family news, and social, political, and economic comments in addition to financial information. Arrangement is chronological. While the Elizabeth Viles Hosmer diaries and papers form a separate section, her estate papers (dated after December 1926) are found in this section.
