INTRODUCTION

Conferences, a legal brief, reports and publications used for research by the Missouri Commission on Human Rights.

DONOR INFORMATION

The papers were donated to the State Historical Society of Missouri by Grant Stauffer on 30 September 1971 (Accession No. 0887). An addition was made 9 May 2017 by the State Historical Society of Missouri.

ORGANIZATIONAL SKETCH

The Missouri Commission on Human Rights develops, recommends, and implements ways to prevent and eliminate discrimination, and to provide fair and timely resolutions of discrimination claims through the enforcement of the Missouri Human Rights Act. The Commission investigates complaints of discrimination in housing, employment, and places of public accommodations based on race, color, religion, national origin, ancestry, sex, disability, age (in employment only), and familial status (in housing only).
