ACCESSION CA6138
HEANEY, SISTER RUTH (1914-2006), PAPERS

This collection is available at The State Historical Society of Missouri. If you would like more information, please contact us at shsresearch@umsystem.edu.

Introduction

Papers of Ruth Boylston Heaney, Benedictine sister of Our Lady of Peace Monastery in Columbia, Missouri. Widow of Larry Heaney (founder of the Milwaukee Catholic Worker) and a social activist, Heaney raised her six children on a Catholic Worker farm in Starkenburg, Missouri. She volunteered with the Benedictine sisters and eventually joined the order in 1979. Includes correspondence with prisoners, notebooks, and limited photographs.

Restriction

Until 17 June 2060, written permission from the Donor is required to access the prisoner correspondence in boxes 1 and 2. Access to the prisoner correspondence will be granted during that time and after the Donor is deceased, if the Manuscript Collection receives proof that the prisoner is deceased.

Note: As a prisoner advocate, Sister Ruth Heaney corresponded throughout her career with prisoners incarcerated in Missouri penal institutions and with government officials regarding prison reform.
