INTRODUCTION

Survey of downtown Columbia architecture, conducted in 1978. Includes negatives and listing of locations/businesses.

DONOR INFORMATION

The collection was donated to the State Historical Society of Missouri by Mary Matthews Happy on April 12, 1985.

HISTORICAL SKETCH

Mary J. Matthews and B. Walters photographed buildings in downtown Columbia, Missouri, in 1978 as part of an architectural survey. The survey was intended to “find the necessary archival information to restore the buildings’ original design elements and to coordinate their renovation, preservation, and reintroduction into the economic community as a primary overriding objective in Columbia’s downtown revitalization program.” The survey occurred from May 1978 to May 1979 and was funded by the Missouri State Office of Historic Preservation and the City of Columbia.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The collection consists of 35 mm black and white negatives and corresponding contact sheets, accompanied by descriptive listings of addresses, buildings, and businesses. The bulk of the photographs depict building exteriors in downtown Columbia, Missouri. Some images show interiors or architectural details. Materials are arranged by Negative File No., as applied by the creators. An additional section of copy negatives of Columbia view books, old photographs, and postcards, is at the end of volume 2, but is not itemized in the image list.
