Historical Note:

The Kansas City Academy of Medicine was founded March 1, 1890, as the Progressive Medical and Social Club. The organization was intended as a benefit of younger members of the medical profession. At the second meeting, the club's name was changed to the Kansas City Academy of Medicine. The Academy started a library and a museum. In 1903, the libraries of the Academy and Jackson County Society were joined and the Kansas City Medical Library Association was formed with directors from both societies.

Arrangement:

The collection folders have been arranged alphabetically with the exception of the oversize photograph. Contents within the folders are arranged chronologically.

Scope and Content Note:

The Kansas City Academy of Medicine Records contain two histories, a minute book, dated 1896-1900, two programs, and an oversize photograph. The histories folder holds "The History of the Academy", dated 1923, and an undated "History of the Jackson County Medical Society". The programs folder is comprised of a program from the 5th Annual Banquet of the Kansas City Academy of Medicine, dated 1898, and a program listing scientific lectures and presentations, dated 1923-1924. The oversize photograph in folder depicts Fellows of the Kansas City Academy of Medicine, dated 1899.
