INTRODUCTION

The scrapbooks contain newspaper clippings regarding the history and development of Kansas City, Missouri.

DONOR INFORMATION

The collection was donated to the University of Missouri as part of the collection of the Native Sons of Greater Kansas City on 7/17/1990 (Accession No. KA0590).

COPYRIGHT AND RESTRICTIONS

The donor, Native Sons of Greater Kansas City, has given and assigned to the University all rights of copyright which the Donor has in the Materials and in such of the Donor's works as may be found among any collections of Materials received by the University from others.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

William James Anderson, Jr., was born in 1884 in Kansas City, Missouri, the son of William James Anderson and Edna Johnson. Anderson's grandfather, Reverend Thomas Johnson, for whom Johnson County, Kansas, was named, founded the Shawnee Indian Mission in 1830.

Beginning early in the 20th century with his work on a booklet for the Missouri Historical Society, Anderson devoted a considerable portion of his time to local historical studies. He was a member of virtually all area historical organizations. As a member of the Native Sons of Kansas City, Anderson urged the group to undertake the restoration of Fort Osage. He also established the Native Sons Archives which sought to preserve documents of early Kansas City history. Anderson was appointed historian for the Native Sons Association in 1938 and held the position for the remainder of his life. He died November 11, 1967 at the age of 84.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The scrapbooks consist of newspaper clippings concerning the history and development of Kansas City in the 1800s. Topics include early settlements; pioneers; prominent citizens and families such as the Chouteaus, Chicks, and McCoys; as well as historic landmarks, churches, buildings, homes, and monuments. Many articles cover individual accounts of watching the city grow and change. The clippings date from the early 1900 to ca. 1960, although the events they describe date as far back as the early 1800s.

The inventory lists topics as they appear in the scrapbooks and an index appears at the end of this finding aid.

Due to preservation concerns, researchers are asked to use the photocopies of the scrapbooks.
