Historical Note:

B'nai B'rith Girls (BBG) is the Jewish young women chapter of the B'nai B'rith Youth Organization (BBYO) and sister program to the Aleph Zadik Aleph (AZA) Jewish young men chapter. Rose Mauser is credited with the creation of the first permanent chapter in San Francisco, California, in December of 1927.

B'nai B'rith Girls activities consisted of programming that was modeled after the AZA "Five Fold and Full" program created by Dr. Boris D. Bogen in 1928. Emphasis was placed on social and community service activities, however, educational, religious, and recreational activities were also included under the program.

Today the program still places emphasis on social and community service and the organization has numerous chapters throughout the United States, Canada, Bulgaria, the United Kingdom, and Israel.

Arrangement:

Materials within this collection were originally a part of a bound scrapbook. Scrapbook pages were detached from their original bindings and it is unknown when this occurred. Materials were arranged chronologically when donated and this order has been kept by the processor.

Scope and Content Note:

This collection documents the activities of the B'nai B'rith Girls Council of Greater Kansas City from 1963 to 1966. Materials found within this collection include newspaper clippings, meeting reminder cards, meeting minutes, a copy of a speech delivered by Harriet Blonsky, a copy of "May Fair Mother" skit from the mother-member tea, recipe cards, summer bowling league reminder card, greeting cards, correspondence, pamphlets, invitations to sponsored events, and event flyers.
