Introduction

Approximately 0.1 cu. ft.

This collection includes a copy of a program, Laying of Corner-stone of Congregation Keneseth Israel in Kansas City, Missouri in 1922. The program lists officers, and members of the building committee, as well as board of directors. Harold's father, Nathan Price, was secretary of the building committee.

Keneseth Israel, an orthodox congregation, originated in 1878 at 1425 Locust St. The cornerstone laying occurred at the southwest corner of 34th and The Paseo. Unable to complete the construction on the newly purchased land, they merged back together with Congregation Beth Shalom in 1924, and dedicated their new facility in 1927.

Donor Information

This gift was received from Harold Price as accession KA2152 on October 17, 2013.
