Introduction

Approximately 0.25 cu. ft.

The papers of Harold Glazer & Carolyn Shankman Glazer include materials relating to ROMEO, (Retired Old Men's Eating Organization) from 1997 to 2006. Harold was a member of the organization and editor of The ROMEO Report newsletter. He also participated in and wrote several of the programs produced by the organization. The ROMEO started in 1991, led by Myron Diamond who died September 19, 1998. Mel Palder took over as president until his death in 2006, and his photograph is included in this collection. Some of the organization's annual events included a New Year's Day brunch at Sherlock's on Holmes, dinner dance at Meadowbrook Country Club, and day trips to Clinton, Missouri. The group met weekly for lunch at area restaurants and featured guest speakers on various topics from sports to finances.
