Historical Note:

The Jewish Federation of Greater Kansas City was developed in 1933 to assist European Jews suffering persecution. As conditions worsened for European Jews, the Jewish Federation focused on raising funds for European Jews in need. As the Federation developed and grew, it supported local Kansas City Jewish organizations as well as Jewish people around the world.

Arrangement:

The collection has been arranged into one folder. Contents of the folder are arranged chronologically.

Scope and Content Note:

This collection contains three Honor Roll booklets for the Campaigns of the Jewish Federation and Council of Greater Kansas City dated 1948, 1950, and 1954. Each Honor Roll booklet has a budget committee report for the year and a listing of individuals, groups, and organizations who supported the year's campaign and the amount of their monetary contribution. Donors are listed alphabetically within each booklet.
