These are records of the district clerks for District No. 3, Roselle School, Madison and Iron counties, 1872-1893; and District No. 18, Middlebrook School, Iron County, 1909-1914. Also included are the visiting records of the county superintendent, 1909-1912, and teachers' certificates and contracts.

The district records include minutes of annual and special meetings of the districts' members, minutes of meetings of the local directors, annual enumeration of students, and estimates of annual expenses for the schools. The records for Middlebrook School also contain expense accounts and lists of warrants issued, teachers' contracts, and the annual statements of the district clerk to the county superintendent.

The visiting records of the Iron County Superintendent of Schools contain evaluations of each of the schools in the county's various districts. The evaluations describe the physical conditions of the schools, their furnishings, and libraries. There are also brief comments on the effectiveness and control of the teachers.
