R Harris & Janis.
434 Letter books, 1874-1882.
Two volumes.

This collection is available at [The State Historical Society of Missouri](http://The State Historical Society of Missouri). If you would like more information, please contact us at shsresearch@umsystem.edu.

These are two letter press volumes, 1874-1875 and 1881-1882, for "Harris & Janis, Bankers and Exchange Dealers," of Ste. Genevieve, Missouri. The letters are copies of routine outgoing correspondence, usually to other financial institutions, often written to accompany bank drafts and other financial instruments. There are alphabetical and chronological lists of addressees for each volume.

The banking house of Harris & Janis was formed by O. D. Harris and Jules F. Janis, two prominent citizens of Ste. Genevieve. Janis served as treasurer of Ste. Genevieve County, 1875-1883, being succeeded by Harris, 1883-1886. These copies of outgoing correspondence were impressed upon thin paper, and then bound, chronologically, into volumes. Harris occasionally signed the letters as "O. D. Harris, Agt.," but usually they were signed corporately, "Harris & Janis." Most were addressed to bank officials in St. Louis, Missouri. Some appear to have dealt with time purchases of sewing machines by residents of the Ste. Genevieve area. The letters are often difficult to read.

The second letterbook, dated 1881-1882, contains many letters to F. A. Reuss & Company of St. Louis, which dealt with the transportation of immigrants from Europe and foreign monetary exchange. A letter of 28 July 1882 to Charles Christensen discusses insurance rates for warehouses at Ste. Genevieve and Little Rock Landing.

Researchers should also see WHMC-Rolla collection number R006, "Harris & Janis Banking House, Ledger, 1874-1876," and collection number R467, "Harris & Janis (Ste. Genevieve, Mo.)."
