Four volumes.

These are daybooks from the general merchandise firm of Felix Janis & Company of Ste. Genevieve, Missouri. Account entries include the date, name of patron (an individual or another firm), items purchased, and the amount charged or credited.

The firm of Felix Janis & Company of Ste. Genevieve, Missouri, was formed ca. May 1852 as a successor to the firms of Jules Valle and Janis & Valle. "F.J. & Co." was a partnership between Felix Janis and Henry Janis, and was consistently described by a credit service as "first rate," "one of the strongest firms in the co[unty]," and "safe & profitable." The firm dealt in dry goods, hardware, shoes, and general merchandise.

The four volumes here bear no identifying marks, but their attribution to Felix Janis & Company is quite certain. Entries begin on 30 January 1854 and continue without interruption to 11 September 1855. Standard entries provide the date, the name of the patron (an individual or another firm), a list of items purchased, and the amount charged. Most entries deal with day-to-day purchases of sundries for small amounts, but some are for comparatively large sums, such as barrels of sand for shipment on steamboats. The first volume has been indexed by the Western Historical Manuscript Collection-Rolla. The most numerous entries are for the American Iron Mountain Company, Antoine Beltrami, Robert J. Boas, Joseph Bogy, Lewis Bogy, Katherine Bogy, E. Bourdeaux, Foussin Bourdeaux, Chouteau & Valle, John Goss, Mrs. Auguste Gregoire, Antoine Janis, Felix Janis, Francis Janis, Henry L. Janis, Francis Lachance, Antoine LaGrave, Little Rock Landing, Joseph Schilley, John G. Scott, Mrs. Shaw, Sebastien Swabb, Felix Valle, Jacob Yeally, S. Ziegler & Company, F. J. Ziegler, John Ziegler, and Lewis Ziegler. All of the volumes are quite similar.

Felix Janis died ca. early September 1855, and the accounts ceased rather abruptly on 11 September 1855, to be succeeded by the firm of Janis & Valle (q.v.). Three entries on the last page were for the "estate" of Felix Janis.
