These are daybooks of a general merchandise firm in Ste. Genevieve, Missouri. The principals were Henry L. Janis (who died in 1856), Jules F. Janis, and L. Bert Valle. The firm was a successor to Felix Janis & Company (q.v.).

The general merchandise firm of Janis & Valle was formed in October 1855 after the death of Felix Janis and the dissolution of his firm, "Felix Janis & Co." The new firm was composed of Henry L. Janis, Jules F. Janis, and L. Bert Valle, who were sons and son-in-law, respectively, of Henry Janis of Fredericktown, Missouri. There is a gap of nearly six months (26 June 1856 to 17 December 1856) between volumes one and two. This may have been due to the death of Henry L. Janis that year, or there may be a missing volume. In any case Volume Two begins with a statement of "Amt of Stock," indicating an equal partnership between Jules F. Janis and L. Bert Valle ($6,415.56 each). The name "Janis & Valle" was retained. There is a gap of exactly one year (20 October 1857 to 21 October 1858) between volumes two and three, probably indicating a missing volume.

Credit agents reported that the original partners had "scarce any means in their own name," but that they enjoyed the backing of Henry Janis, Sr., a man of considerable worth. By 1858 the firm was described as "one of our best," and "perfectly safe."

Volume One is directly related to that in collection R1, which might also include collections made on debts owed to Felix Janis & Co., which the new firm would have acquired. For the most part the chronological entries follow a standard format, giving the date, the name of the patron (an individual or another firm), items purchased, and the amounts charged. None of the volumes have been indexed. Entries end on 13 June 1859 on the last page of Volume Three, but credit records indicate that the firm continued in business past that date.
