This is a daily account journal of the general mercantile firm of Rozier & Jokerst of Ste. Genevieve, Missouri. The principals were Henry Louis Rozier and Francis L. Jokerst. Included are names of patrons, goods bought, and amounts charged. Inclusive dates are 8 January 1876 through 23 September 1876.

The general mercantile firm of Rozier & Jokerst was established in Ste. Genevieve, Missouri, in 1874 or 1875. The principals were Henry Louis Rozier and Francis L. Jokerst, both natives of Ste. Genevieve. H. L. Rozier (1849-1927) was the son of Francis Claude Rozier and Zoe Valle, while F. L. Jokerst (b. 1851) was the son of Charles Jokerst and Theresa Siebert.

This volume is a standard "journal," or daily financial record, of the period. Inclusive dates are 8 January 1876 through 23 September 1876. It is keyed numerically to a non-extant ledger. Chronological entries list the names of the customers, goods purchased, and the amounts charged.
