This is the record book of the Past Noble Grand Club at Joplin in Jasper County, Missouri. The club consisted of past leaders of the various lodges of the Daughters of Rebekah in Jasper County. The volume includes minutes of meetings from 10 May 1950 through 11 October 1961, lists of officers, and attendance records.

“Noble Grand” was the highest office in lodges of the Daughters of Rebekah. After leaving office, the officers became “Past Noble Grands,” and continued to act in advisory and ceremonial roles. The Past Noble Grand Club of Joplin consisted of former officers of the Blendville, Joplin, and Zinc lodges of Jasper County. Lodges rotated responsibility for hosting the meetings, which usually took place at the Odd Fellows Hall at Ninth and Main streets in Joplin.
