These are the membership account ledger and minutes of meetings of the Daughters of Rebekah Webb City Lodge No. 106 at Webb City in Jasper County, Missouri. The records end in 1992 with the consolidation of the Webb City lodge with Blendville Lodge No. 298.

The "Rebekah Ledger" contains individual accounts of members beginning on 1 January 1961, and ending with the calendar year of 1991. Each account shows the date and method of admission, along with the age, residence, and occupation of each member, some of whom came from the Daughters of Rebekah lodge at Carl Junction when it consolidated with Webb City in 1955. In some cases, obituaries and death notices have been tipped in with the member's record. An alphabetical index precedes the volume. Earlier membership records for Webb City No. 106 have been microfilmed previously as WHMC-Rolla collection R538.

The minutes of meetings begin on 27 January 1987. The last meeting of the Webb City lodge occurred on 18 May 1992, after which it consolidated with Blendville. Post-consolidation records of Blendville Lodge have been microfilmed as WHMC-Rolla collection R811.
