

Information Sheet

R Joplin High School (Joplin, Mo.).
907 Program, 1918.
 One folder.

This collection is available at The State Historical Society of Missouri. If you would like more information, please contact us at shsresearch@umsystem.edu.

This is a program for a performance of “The Education of Mr. Pipp,” a theatrical comedy by Augustus Thomas, by the Senior Class of 1918 of Joplin High School at Joplin in Jasper County, Missouri. Directed by Mrs. George F. Wolfe, the play was performed on 9-10 May 1918.

Based upon a series of illustrations by Charles Dana Gibson, Augustus Thomas’s “The Education of Mr. Pipp” premiered on Broadway on 20 February 1905 and ran for 78 performances. This production by the Joplin High School Senior Class of 1918 was presented at the “New High School Auditorium” on 9-10 May 1918. Norvin H. Welch played the title role.

r973 13 August 2003 D. Poulson Purchase

Index Cards

Barnett, Wynette
College and school drama, American—Missouri—Joplin
Coulter, T. Frank
Cox, Cecil A.
Harutun, John J.
Jasper County (Mo.)
Joplin (Mo.)
Joplin High School (Joplin, Mo.)
Thomas, Augustus, 1857-1934
Welch, Norvin H.
Wolfe, George F., Mrs.