This is a letter dated 5 August 1912 from A. H. Poe in Blodgett, Scott County, Missouri, to J. Freeman Suttle in Felix, Alabama. The letter concerns Poe's future plans and employment prospects.

The letterhead of this two-page manuscript letter describes A. H. Poe as an award-winning breeder of Silver Penciled Wyandotte chickens and Indian Runner ducks in Jackson, Cape Girardeau County, Missouri. However, on the first page of the letter Jackson has been crossed out and Blodgett written in its place. Poe stated that, "I have resigned my position with the Land Co on July 22 and I am waiting for them to get a good man before I move ... to Cape Girardeau and will look out for me a position in the near future."

James Freeman Suttle, the addressee, was born in 1866 in Perry County, Alabama, and died in 1934 in Selma, Alabama.
