This is a year book for 1952-1953 for the Friends in Council, a woman's study club at Springfield in Greene County, Missouri. Included are the names and addresses of officers and members, a calendar for the club's meeting year (October 1952 to May 1953), and topics and readings for discussion at the meetings.

The Friends in Council of Springfield, Mo., was organized in 1883 and incorporated as a Missouri benevolent (not-for-profit) corporation in 1897. A woman's study club, it met on Friday afternoons from October through May. This 32-page booklet includes the names and addresses of the 16 members, the meeting calendar, and detailed study assignments for the major topics ("Last Chance in Africa" and "Paul Revere" for the year. Gertrude Anderson served as President for 1952-1953.
