This is the fortieth anniversary edition of The Marshfield Mail, a newspaper published at Marshfield in Webster County, Missouri. Included are small articles about people and businesses in Webster County, along with reminiscences by the newspaper's publisher, T. Ballard Watters.

The Marshfield Mail published its first issue in 1892, and this is Volume XLI, Number 1, dated 30 June 1932, "celebrating 40 years of service to Webster County." Its 20 pages are devoted entirely to illustrated features about Marshfield's and Webster County's leading citizens and businesses, including an article by the editor discussing changes that had occurred over those forty years.
