This is a “souvenir” of the Winter Term, 1910, for the Riverside School in Butler County, Missouri. Farrar Foster was the teacher and J. D. Mercer, R. P. Neel, and W. A. Cravens were Directors of the local school district.

The District number and location of the Riverside School are not provided on this small two-board “souvenir.” A photographic portrait of Teacher Farrar Foster is on the cover board. The pupils were Fletcher Neel, Nora Mercer, James Mattingly, Hattie Mattingly, Annie Mattingly, Turner Mercer, Bessie Mattingly, Pearl Thomas, Corene Cravens, Edna Mattingly, Blanford Harrel, and Hettie Thomas.
