This is a program for "Oh Doctor," an operetta by Estelle M. and Palmer J. Clark, presented by the musical organizations of Carthage High School at Carthage in Jasper County, Missouri, on 30-31 March 1944. The director was Frances Ragsdale and the accompanist was Ruth Hibbs.

"Oh Doctor" was an operetta in two acts by composer Palmer John Clark and librettist Estelle Merrymon Clark. Performers consisted of vocalists, musicians, and dancers, including a 65-member chorus. This single-sheet program consists of six panels, naming all of the participants and including advertisements for local businesses.
