This is a program booklet for the “Fifty-Second Annual Conclave” of the Grand Commandery Knights Templar of the State of Missouri, held at the Masonic Temple in Springfield in Greene County, Missouri, on 27-28 May 1913.

The Knights Templar constitute the final order of York Rite freemasonry. As such, its members are Master Masons and members of a Royal Arch lodge. This 16-page booklet was published to promote the Missouri section of the order’s 52nd annual “conclave,” held at the Masonic Temple in Springfield. The meeting was hosted by St. John’s Commandery No. 20. Included are a program of events, including a “Priory of Knights of Malta,” and several pages of photographs of Springfield’s public buildings, schools, churches, homes, and country club. A photograph of the Masonic Temple is on the cover of the booklet. Arthur C. Daily was chairman of the Conclave Committee.
