This is a “souvenir booklet” presented by the teacher, Almee Sires, to the students at Prairie Home School in St. Clair County, Missouri, at the close of the school year in 1912. Included are a list of the students and the members of the local school board.

Prairie Home School was designated as St. Clair County School District No. 58. Its exact whereabouts are unknown, but it was located in Township 38. There were 44 students and four members of the school board, including President J. C. Barnett, Clerk J. F. Nunn, and Directors E. P. Nunn and R. L. Moore.
