Processed by: Processed by Erin Smither, November 20, 2015

Historical Note:

Nell Mabrey was born September 24, 1910, in Chaonia, Missouri to George and Esther Mabrey. She attended Center Ridge Elementary and Greenville High School both in Wayne County. After graduating high school, Mabrey attended and graduated from Southeast Missouri State Teachers College, now Southeast Missouri State University, in Cape Girardeau. Mabrey taught at Advance Public High School in Advance, Missouri, and also worked as a file clerk at the FBI in Washington D.C. Mabrey married Herb Bangert on June 10, 1945. Bangert (1907-1974) was from Cape Girardeau County. He worked as an iron molder in a foundry and belonged to the Free Masons. They had no children and he passed away suddenly in 1974. Nell never remarried. She died January 25, 1996, at the age of 85.

Arrangement:

The papers have been arranged into seventeen folders. They are organized topically and where possible, chronologically.

Scope and Content Note:

The Bangert Family Papers consist of the family photographs, educational materials, and family history of Herb and Nell Mabrey Bangert.
