Historical Note:

Meramec cavern is a cave located near the Meramec River in the southern part of Meramec Township. Formerly known as Saltpeter Cave, it was a place where gunpowder was manufactured during the Civil War. The gunpowder was made from the saltpeter found in the cave. In 1933, the owner of the cave, Mr. Dill, named the cave Meramec Caverns due to its being close to the Meramec River.
