The records of the New Democratic Coalition were donated to the Western Historical Manuscript Collection by Marvin L. Madeson on May 10, 1977.

The New Democratic Coalition was founded in 1968 as a reform movement in response to the Chicago Democratic Convention. Their major aims include the reform of campaign spending, tax assessment and the widening of the delegate selection process. Marvin L. Madison Madeson of St. Louis was national chairman from 1970-1972. Contains correspondence, audio tapes, minutes, press releases and photographs.
