Twenty-two carpenters met on December 8, 1871 to form the St. Louis Cabinet Makers' Protective Union. The following year they affiliated with the International Cabinet Makers' Union of America, becoming Local 12. In 1903 the local became part of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America as Local 1596. Includes records of other unions that joined Local 1596. Early volumes are in German.
