The papers of Congressman Young were donated to the collection in three segments, the first two by Gary Elmstead on November 13, 1986 and May 6, 1988. The third by the Congressman himself on October 18, 1988.

Robert A. Young was born on November 27, 1923, served in the army during World War II, and was a member of the pipefitters union before he entered politics. His first political position was as a Democratic committeeman for the Airport township in 1952. In 1956 he was elected to the Missouri House of Representatives, where he served until 1962 at which time he was elected to the Missouri Senate. In 1977 he was elected to the U.S. house where he served until 1986. While with the House, Congressman Young served on the Public Works and Transportation Committee and the Committee on Science and Technology.

SCOPE AND CONTENT

The collection consists of the general files of Congressman Young during his tenure as U.S. Representative. There is little of a personal nature in the records, but mainly information collected to help the Congressman reach a decision on pending legislation. The records include correspondence, studies, reports, brochures, newsletters, press releases, newsclippings, and photographs.
