Photograph Collection, 1890-1963
1720 Photographic Prints, 1728 Photographic Negatives

This collection is available at The State Historical Society of Missouri. If you would like more information, please contact us at shsresearch@umsystem.edu.

Arthur W. Proetz was born in St. Louis in a house at 2411 Buena Vista street (now Lemp Avenue). He grew up in the city and attended Washington University. He was a practiced surgeon and amateur photographer. Proetz also authored a book, I Remember You St. Louis, which was published in 1963. The collection was donated by Mrs. Arthur Proetz in January 1969.

SCOPE AND CONTENT

SERIES DESCRIPTION

SERIES 1. The initial series contains prints ranging from 35mm contact prints to oversize prints in the map case.

SERIES 2. This series contains the negatives. Nitrate negatives are stored separately in directors office.

*note the photographs are, for the most part, arranged chronologically except for a few photographs that were added at the end.
