

S0671 Starkloff, Max C. (1859-)
Scrapbook, 1921-1931
1 Volume

This collection is available at The State Historical Society of Missouri. If you would like more information, please contact us at shsresearch@umsystem.edu.

Born in Quincy, Illinois; studied at a military school in Pennsylvania; 1892 received his doctor's degree from the St. Louis Medical College in 1892; became Health and Hospital Commissioner of St. Louis in 1895; early champion of preventive medicine, bacteriology, pasteurization and vaccinations.

INDEX

Health Department
Immunization
Infant Mortality
Kinloch, MO
Pasteurization
Smallpox
Starkloff, Max
Vaccinations