The National Women's Political Caucus (NWPC) was formed in 1971 to identify, recruit, train, endorse, and support women seeking office. The organization, which is nonpartisan, endeavors to improve the status of women by amplifying the voice of women in government. The Missouri State Women's Political Caucus was formed in 1972 as the state organization of the National Women's Political Caucus. The Women Political Caucus encourages women to seek positions in government, supports all political candidates who will work for women's issues, and laws which discriminate against women.

SCOPE AND CONTENT
