The Charlotte Peters Papers were donated by Charlotte Peters on August 15, 1981 and was added to by Charlotte Peters' daughter, Patricia Schwarz, on June 26, 1989.

Charlotte Peters was the first woman on television in St. Louis and a twenty-three year veteran of a daily one-hour show on KSD-TV ' Channel 5 and KTVI ' Channel 2. Peters first began to her television career when she won a spot on Russ Severin's To The Ladies television show after she responded to an announcement for a talent contest at KSD-TV. Seven years later KSD-TV changed the name from To The Ladies to The Charlotte Peters Show. The hour-long musical-variety show was based on whim, impulse, and audience participation. Peters created the theme and wrote ten percent of each show and the other ninety percent was ad lib. Her last show was July 10, 1970.
