The Dolly Darigo Papers were donated by Dolly Darigo on July 7, 1994.

Darigo began work as a bacteriologist for the U. S. Army and later for Missouri Baptist Hospital. Later, Darigo worked as a naturalist for the Missouri Department of Natural Resources. In the 1980s, she worked and lived at Meramec State Park where she gave tours and developed natural history programs. Darigo also led natural history tours for disabled visitors at Babler State Park. Darigo and her husband, Carl, have conducted botanical surveys of Meramec and Babler State Parks. Since the early 1980s, they have collected and identified specimens for the state herbarium in Jefferson City.

Darigo has also spent many years volunteering for the Evangelical Lutheran Church of America, where she serves on committees to establish care, housing, and employment for the mentally disabled and to improve race relations in the churches. Also, Darigo has volunteered in the Africa and Madagascar Department at the Missouri Botanical Gardens Research sorting incoming specimens by plant family.

Darigo has been involved in a series of causes including United Farm Workers Union, Freedom of Residence, Namibia, penal reform, and machinists unions.

Darigo is also the mother of three children and grandmother of four.
