3 Volumes, 33 Photographs

This collection is available at [The State Historical Society of Missouri](http://The State Historical Society of Missouri). If you would like more information, please contact us at shsresearch@umsystem.edu.

This collection contains the papers of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Wallace, a Catholic family that lived on Tieman Street in St. Louis. Their papers include two appointment books, which also double as scrapbooks with clippings of vivid western landscapes, humorous stories, and photos of famous religious and political figures. In addition, the collection includes correspondence, a volume of Wallace Family History, photographs, and identification cards.
