Philip Trimble of Frankfort, Indiana donated the St. Louis Police Circus Photograph Collection on March 25, 2015.

Mr. Trimble's uncle, Richard F. Trimble (Fred) and his horse Boots, "The White Flying Mare," performed exhibitions with the St. Louis Flying Circus. The St. Louis Flying Circus began its fund raising efforts for St. Louis police officers and their families around c. 1900 and continued into the 1960s.

SCOPE AND CONTENT

The collection contains four photographs that document the circus held at the Arena and its participants in 1946.
