Introduction

Approximately 1.5 cubic foot

This accession to the Missouri Association for Adult Continuing and Community Education (MAACCE) contains meeting minutes, photographs, membership directories, and newsletters pertaining to conference planning, leadership changes within MAACCE, proposed revisions to MAACCE's constitution, and grassroots organizing for community education programs. The materials in this collection date from 1980 to 2007.

The Missouri Association for Adult Continuing and Community Education (MAACCE) evolved from four previous associations in 1983. The four organizations in MAACCE's past include the Missouri Adult Education Association (MAEA); the Missouri Valley Education Association (MVEA); the Missouri Community Education Association (MCEA); the Missouri Association for Adult and Continuing Education (MAACE). MAACCE promotes the principles of and opportunities for adult continuing and community education in the state of Missouri through professional development and workshops.

Donor Information

The records were donated to the University of Missouri by Wendell Smith on October 15, 2008 (Accession No. 08-48). An addition was made on November 6, 2018, by John Henschke (Accession No. 18-29).
